What to Expect

Expect to be surprised by what (and who) shows up. I don't "take your picture" or make portraits bend to my creative will. I create favorable conditions for you to express your best by letting your beingness be. Its fun and surprisingly simple to get out of your own way, and the camera is there to gently magnify your magnificence. I stand for the courage it takes to live in those infinite moments and the healing power of being deeply seen.
